'From Taboo to Empowerment: "I believe Menstrual Hygiene and Health is one of the crucial weapons to fight gender inequalities and stigma around menstruating women. Since I have been associated with CACR I have interacted with thousands of adolescent girls and women from urban and rural areas and educated them on the importance of menstruation health and hygiene. "

Mrs. Suvarna Ghadge - Program Manager , CACR

PARTNERSHIPS AND ACCREDITATION

Gender inequality, cultural taboos and poverty can cause menstrual health needs to go unmet as well as force many girls to miss school. So far we have reached out to 35000 vulnerable adolescent girls across MMR region with our Menstrual Hygiene Programs and Materials. With your donation of just INR 1500 one girl will receive health and hygiene education as well as access to menstrual hygiene items such as panties / sanitary pads for 1 year.
